

Vacancy at N/a'an Ku Sê Wildlife Experience – N/a'an Ku Sê Foundation

An exciting and challenging opportunity is available for a Grade R Teacher to join our team. The successful incumbent will be based at Epukiro, Rural Eastern part of Namibia.

The Lifeline School is looking for a passionate and dedicated Grade R Teacher to join our team. The successful candidate will be responsible for creating a nurturing and stimulating learning environment that supports the intellectual, social, emotional, and physical development of young learners, while upholding Christian values and fostering a love for learning.

Main responsibilities (but not limited to):

- Plan and implement an age-appropriate, play-based curriculum in line with the national education framework.
- Create a safe, inclusive, and engaging classroom environment that encourages learning and development.
- Use a variety of teaching methods, including storytelling, structured play, music, and creative arts.
- Develop early literacy and numeracy skills through structured activities and interactive learning.
- Assess and monitor learners' progress, providing constructive feedback to support their growth.
- Maintain open communication with parents and guardians regarding learners' progress, challenges, and achievements.
- Foster social and emotional development by teaching values such as kindness, respect, and teamwork.
- Manage classroom behaviour effectively using positive discipline techniques.
- Ensure the safety and well-being of all learners during school hours.
- Participate in school meetings, training, and development programmes as required.
- Work collaboratively with colleagues and contribute positively to the school environment.

Job requirements and skills:

- A recognised teaching qualification in Early Childhood Development (ECD) or Foundation Phase Education.
- A minimum of 2 years' teaching experience in a Grade R or similar environment.
- Knowledge of the Namibian education curriculum for early childhood development.
- Fluency in English with excellent communication skills (additional local languages will be an advantage).
- Strong classroom management abilities and a positive approach to discipline.
- A passion for working with young children and a patient, caring approach.
- Commitment to Christian values and the ability to incorporate them into daily teaching.
- Basic computer literacy and the ability to integrate technology into lessons.

Remuneration:

- A competitive salary package coherent to experience and qualification
- Accommodation is provided at the sites
- Membership of the Naankuse Medical Aid Group at own cost

Closing date for applications: 19 March 2025

To apply for this position, please email your CV to jobs1@naankuse.com. Please note that we are an eco-friendly and paperless company, therefore hand-delivered CVs will not be accepted.

The reference should be Grade R Teacher at the Lifeline School

CVs with incorrect subject lines will not be considered

Only short-listed candidates will be contacted